If his mother said Ted be good,
                                  he would.
She told him tales about his soldier dad,
                        Am
                                       Em

Then it made her sad,
                         then she cried

Teddy turned and ran far away,

He couldn't stand to see his mother in love
